DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, 12, 13, 26, and 38-45, drawn to a monospecific antibody which binds an epitope of DPPIV, classified in class 424, subclass 130.1.
- II. Claims 10, 11, and 27, drawn to a bispecific antibody, classified in class 424, subclass 133.1.
- III. Claims 14-25, 28, 29, 30, 33, 36, and 37, drawn to immunoconjugates, classified in class 424, subclass 178.1.
- IV. Claims 30 and 34, drawn to a method of treating a patient with a monospecific antibody, classified in class 530, subclass 387.1.
- V. Claims 31 and 35, drawn to a method of treating a patient with a bispecific antibody, classified in class 424, subclass 136.1.
- VI. Claims 46-60, drawn to methods of inhibiting cancer invasion, classified in class 424, subclass 141.1.
- VII. Claims 61 and 62, drawn to methods of stimulating angiogenesis, classified in class 514, subclass 2, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the antibody of Group I can be used in the materially different process of affinity purification of proteins.

Inventions II and V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the antibody of Group II can be used in the materially different process of affinity purification of proteins.

The products of Groups I-III have different structures and different immunological properties.

The methods of Groups IV-VII utilize different components, are for different purposes, have distinct outcomes, and have different and distinct method steps.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
